- (1) If a person acting under color of state law willfully or wantonly fails to perform duties so that the rights in this chapter are not provided, an action for injunctive relief, including prospective injunctive relief, may be brought against the individual and the governmental entity that employs the individual.
- (2)
 - (a) The victim of a crime or representative of a victim of a crime, including any Victims' Rights Committee as defined in Section 77-37-5 may:
 - (i) bring an action for declaratory relief or for a writ of mandamus defining or enforcing the rights of victims and the obligations of government entities under this chapter;
 - (ii) petition to file an amicus brief in any court in any case affecting crime victims; and
 - (iii) after giving notice to the prosecution and the defense, seek an appropriate remedy for a violation of a victim's right from the judge assigned to the case involving the issue as provided in Section 77-38-11.
 - (b) Adverse rulings on these actions or on a motion or request brought by a victim of a crime or a representative of a victim of a crime may be appealed under the rules governing appellate actions, provided that an appeal may not constitute grounds for delaying any criminal or juvenile proceeding.
 - (c) An appellate court shall review all properly presented issues, including issues that are capable of repetition but would otherwise evade review.
- (3)
 - (a) Upon a showing that the victim has not unduly delayed in seeking to protect the victim's right, and after hearing from the prosecution and the defense, the judge shall determine whether a right of the victim has been violated.
 - (b) If the judge determines that a victim's right has been violated, the judge shall proceed to determine the appropriate remedy for the violation of the victim's right by hearing from the victim and the parties, considering all factors relevant to the issue, and then awarding an appropriate remedy to the victim. The court shall reconsider any judicial decision or judgment affected by a violation of the victim's right and determine whether, upon affording the victim the right and further hearing from the prosecution and the defense, the decision or judgment would have been different. If the court's decision or judgment would have been different, the court shall enter the new different decision or judgment as the appropriate remedy. If necessary to protect the victim's right, the new decision or judgment shall be entered nunc pro tunc to the time the first decision or judgment was reached. In no event shall the appropriate remedy be a new trial, damages, attorney fees, or costs.

- (c) The appropriate remedy shall include only actions necessary to provide the victim the right to which the victim was entitled and may include reopening previously held proceedings. Subject to Subsection (3)(d), the court may reopen a sentence or a previously entered guilty or no contest plea only if doing so would not preclude continued prosecution or sentencing the defendant and would not otherwise permit the defendant to escape justice. Any remedy shall be tailored to provide the victim an appropriate remedy without violating any constitutional right of the defendant.
- (d) If the court sets aside a previously entered plea of guilty or no contest, and thereafter continued prosecution of the charge is held to be prevented by the defendant's having been previously put in jeopardy, the order setting aside the plea is void and the plea is reinstated as of the date of its original entry.
- (e) The court may not award as a remedy the dismissal of any criminal charge.
- (f) The court may not award any remedy if the proceeding that the victim is challenging occurred more than 90 days before the victim filed an action alleging the violation of the right.
- (4) The failure to provide the rights in this chapter or Title 77, Chapter 37, Victims' Rights, shall not constitute cause for a judgment against the state or any government entity, or any individual employed by the state or any government entity, for monetary damages, attorney fees, or the costs of exercising any rights under this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 331, 2010 General Session

77-38-12 Construction of this chapter -- No right to set aside conviction, adjudication, admission, or plea -- Severability clause.

- (1) All of the provisions contained in this chapter shall be construed to assist the victims of crime.
- (2) This chapter may not be construed as creating a basis for dismissing any criminal charge or delinquency petition, vacating any adjudication or conviction, admission or plea of guilty or no contest, or for a defendant to obtain appellate, habeas corpus, or other relief from a judgment in any criminal or delinquency case.
- (3) This chapter may not be construed as creating any right of a victim to appointed counsel at state expense.
- (4) All of the rights contained in this chapter shall be construed to conform to the Constitution of the United States.
- (5)
 - (a) In the event that any portion of this chapter is found to violate the Constitution of the United States, the remaining provisions of this chapter shall continue to operate in full force and effect.
 - (b) In the event that a particular application of any portion of this chapter is found to violate the Constitution of the United States, all other applications shall continue to operate in full force and effect.
- (6) The enumeration of certain rights for crime victims in this chapter shall not be construed to deny or disparage other rights granted by the Utah Constitution or the Legislature or retained by victims of crimes.

Amended by Chapter 120, 2009 General Session

77-38-13 Declaration of legislative authority.

It is the view of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter, and other provisions enacted simultaneously with it, are substantive provisions within inherent legislative authority.  - (b) If a court enters a plea in abeyance or a diversion agreement for a defendant that includes an agreement to pay restitution, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution in accordance with the terms of the plea in abeyance or the diversion agreement.

Part 3
Civil Accounts Receivables and Civil Judgments for Restitution

77-38b-301 Entry of judgment -- Interest -- Civil actions -- Lien -- Delinquency.

- (1) As used in this section, "judgment" means an order for:
 - (a) a civil judgment of restitution; or
 - (b) a civil accounts receivable.
- (2)
 - (a) If the court has entered a judgment on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114, the judgment is enforceable under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
 - (b)
 - (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a):
 - (A) a judgment is an obligation that arises out of the defendant's criminal case;
 - (B) civil enforcement of a judgment shall be construed as a continuation of the criminal action for which the judgment arises; and
 - (C) a judgment is criminal in nature.
 - (ii) Civil enforcement of a judgment does not divest a defendant of an obligation imposed in a criminal action as part of the defendant's punishment for an offense.
- (3)
 - (a) Notwithstanding Sections 77-18-114, 78B-2-311, and 78B-5-202, a judgment shall expire only upon payment in full, including applicable interest, collection fees, attorney fees, and liens that directly result from the judgment.
 - (b) Interest on a judgment may only accrue from the day on which the judgment is entered on the civil judgment docket by the court.
 - (c) This Subsection (3) applies to all judgments that are not paid in full on or before May 12, 2009.
- (4) A judgment is considered entered on the civil judgment docket when the judgment appears on the civil judgment docket with:
 - (a) an amount owed by the defendant;
 - (b) the name of the defendant as the judgment debtor; and
 - (c) the name of the judgment creditors described in Subsections 77-18-114(1)(b)(iii) and (2)(b).
- (5) If a civil judgment of restitution becomes delinquent, or is in default, and upon a motion from a judgment creditor, the court may order the defendant to appear and show cause why the defendant should not be held in contempt under Section 78B-6-317 for the delinquency or the default.

77-38b-303 Civil action by a victim.

- (1) A provision under this part concerning restitution does not limit or impair the right of a person injured by a defendant's criminal conduct to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action.
- (2)
 - (a) A court's finding on the amount of restitution owed by a defendant under Subsection 77-38b-205(1)(a)(iii) may be used in a civil action pertaining to the defendant's liability to a victim as presumptive proof of the victim's pecuniary damages that are proximately caused by the defendant's criminal conduct.

- (b) If a conviction in a criminal trial decides the issue of a defendant's liability for pecuniary damages suffered by a victim, the issue of the defendant's liability for pecuniary damages is conclusively determined as to the defendant if the issue is involved in a subsequent civil action.
- (c)
 - (i) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), if a defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense, the defendant is precluded from subsequently denying the essential allegations of the offense in a subsequent civil action brought against the defendant for the criminal conduct underlying the offense.
 - (ii) Subsection (2)(c)(i) does not apply if the offense is a class C misdemeanor under Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, or the defendant entered a plea of no contest for the offense.
- (3)
 - (a) The sentencing court shall credit any payment in favor of the victim in a civil action for the defendant's criminal conduct toward the amount of restitution owed by the defendant to the victim.
 - (b) In a civil action, a court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim for the defendant's criminal conduct towards the victim against any judgment that is in favor of the victim for the civil action.
 - (c) If a victim receives payment from the defendant for the civil action, the victim shall provide notice to the sentencing court and the court in the civil action of the payment within 30 days after the day on which the victim receives the payment.
 - (d) Nothing in this section shall prevent a defendant from providing proof of payment to the court or the office.
- (4)
 - (a) If a victim prevails in a civil action against a defendant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the victim.
 - (b) If the defendant prevails in the civil action, the court shall award reasonable costs to the defendant if the court finds that the victim brought the civil action for an improper purpose, including to harass the defendant or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

 - (b) second, and except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), to restitution owed by the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4);
 - (c) third, to the cost of obtaining a DNA specimen from the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4)(b);

 - (b) Subject to Subsection (5), if a defendant is required under Section 53-10-404 to reimburse the department for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen, the reimbursement for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen is the next priority after restitution to the victim of the offense under Subsection (4)(a)(i).
 - (c) Subject to Subsection (5), if the defendant is required to pay restitution to more than one victim, restitution shall be disbursed to each victim according to the percentage of each victim's share of the total order for restitution.
- (5) The office shall disburse money collected from a defendant to a debt that is a part of a civil accounts receivable or civil judgment of restitution if:
- (a) a defendant has provided a written request to the office to apply the payment to the debt; and
 - (b)
 - (i) the payment will eliminate the entire balance of the debt, including any interest; or
 - (ii) after reaching a settlement, the payment amount will eliminate the entire agreed upon balance of the debt, including any interest.
- (6) For a criminal accounts receivable, the department shall collect the current and past due amount owed by a defendant for the monthly supervision fee under Subsection 64-13-21(6)
- (a) until the court enters a civil accounts receivable on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114.

77-38b-402 Preservation of assets.

- (1)
 - (a) Before, or at the time, a criminal information, indictment charging a violation, or a petition alleging delinquency is filed, or at any time during the prosecution of the case, a prosecuting attorney may, if in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment there is a substantial likelihood that a conviction will be obtained and restitution will be ordered in the case, petition the court to:
 - (i) enter a temporary restraining order, an injunction, or both;
 - (ii) require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond; or
 - (iii) take any other action to preserve the availability of property that may be necessary to satisfy an anticipated order for restitution.
 - (b) A prosecuting attorney may subpoena a document, witness, or other evidence that, in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment, may provide evidence relevant to the property described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii).
 - (a) Upon receiving a request from a prosecuting attorney under Subsection (1)(a), and after notice to a person appearing to have an interest in the property and affording the person an opportunity to be heard, the court may take action as requested by the prosecuting attorney if the court determines:
 - (i) there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed the offense, and that failure to enter the order will likely result in the property being sold, distributed, exhibited, destroyed, or removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise be made unavailable for restitution; and
 - (ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent the property's sale, distribution, exhibition, destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the order is to be entered.
 - (b) In a hearing conducted in accordance with this section, a court may consider reliable hearsay as defined in Utah Rules of Evidence, Rule 1102.
 - (c) An order for an injunction entered under this section is effective for the period of time given in the order.
- (3)
 - (a) Upon receiving a request for a temporary restraining order from a prosecuting attorney under this section, a court may enter a temporary restraining order against an owner with respect to specific property without notice or opportunity for a hearing if:

- (i) the prosecuting attorney demonstrates that there is a substantial likelihood that the property with respect to which the order is sought appears to be necessary to satisfy an anticipated restitution order under this chapter; and
 - (ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property to satisfy any judgment or order for restitution.
- (b) The temporary order in this Subsection (3) expires no later than 10 days after the day on which the temporary order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or the party against whom the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.
- (4) A hearing concerning an order entered under this section shall be held as soon as possible, and before the expiration of the temporary order.
